

Auditorium Montini

Pope Benedict XVI has inaugurated on Sunday 8 November the Auditorium "Montini" at the new Institute Paul VI in Colcesio (BG) in the presence of Secretary of State Gianni Letta, Minister of Education Maria Stella Gelmini and other state and ecclesiastical dignitaries.

The prestigious project has been awarded to ARESLINE also thanks to the longstanding and close collaboration with "Arredamenti RIVA".

The Auditorium is fitted with 240 armchairs GENESIS with a wooden backrest rear. The embroidered papal crest in the side of the first and last armchair of each row enhances its elegance and prestige.

On the stage up to 70 armchairs PAPILLON can be arranged making this area suitable for staging different types of events.

